I. A HARD Head

"Who is this fellow David?" Nabal sneered to the young men. "Who does this son of Jesse think he is? There are lots of servants these days who run away from their masters. Should I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers and give it to a band of outlaws who come from who knows where?"

~ 1 Samuel 25:10-11

A lot of good it did to help this fellow. We protected his flocks in the wilderness, and nothing he owned was lost or stolen. But he has repaid me evil for good. May God strike me and kill me if even one man of his household is still alive tomorrow morning.

~ 1 Samuel 25:21-22

"David lost his temper, but he lost so much more than that. He also lost all sense of his identity as the Lord's anointed. He was on the verge of becoming another Saul, out to get rid of anybody he perceived as a threat." ~ Eugene Peterson, Leap Over A Wall

... a sensible and beautiful woman.

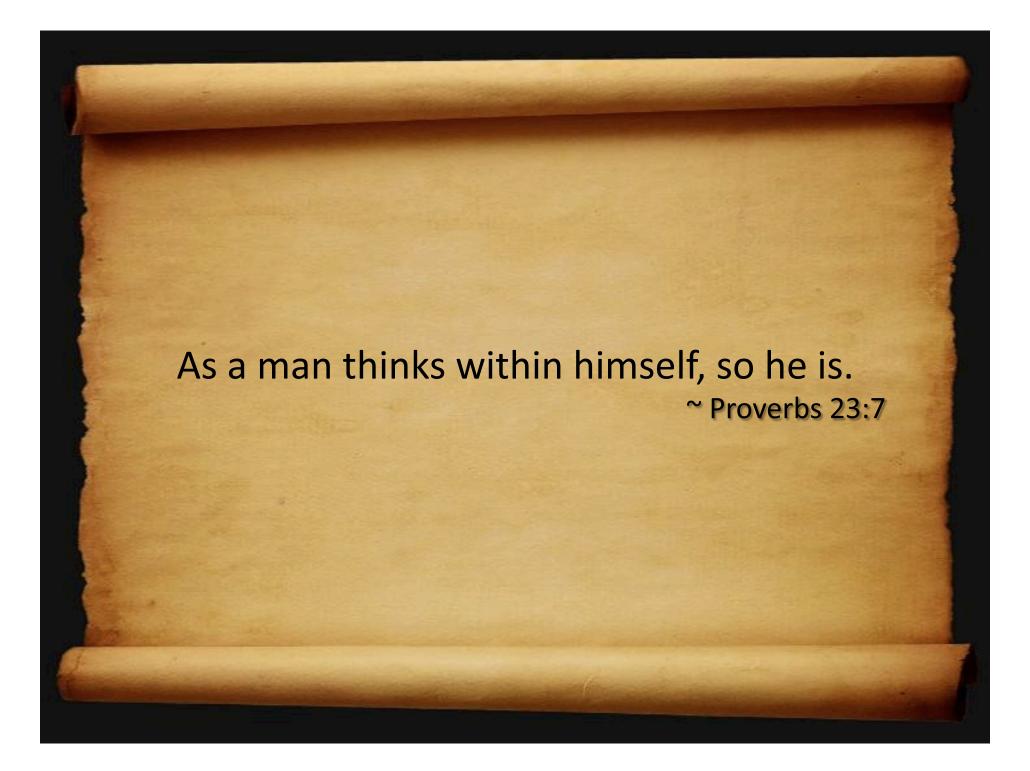

~ 1 Samuel 25:3

Abigail wasted no time. She quickly gathered 200 loaves of bread, two wineskins full of wine, five sheep that had been slaughtered, nearly a bushel of roasted grain, 100 clusters of raisins, and 200 fig cakes. She packed them on donkeys and said to her servants, "Go on ahead, I will follow you shortly."

~ 1 Samuel 25:18-19

Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, who has sent you to meet me today. Thank God for your good sense. Bless you for keeping me from murder and carrying out vengeance with my own hands. For I swear by the Lord, the God of Israel, who has kept me from hurting you, that if you had not hurried out to meet me, not one of Nabal's men would still be alive tomorrow morning.

~ 1 Samuel 25:32-34

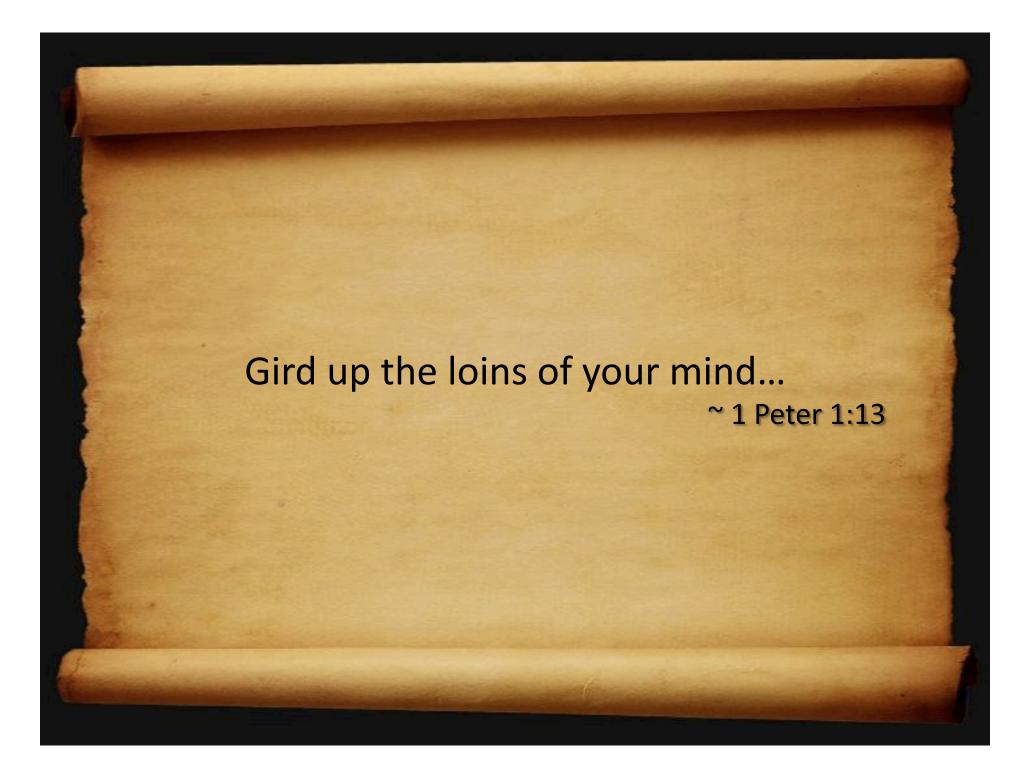

'Good thoughts and actions can never produce bad results. Bad thoughts and actions can never produce good results. This is but saying that nothing can come from corn but corn, nothing from nettles but nettles. Men understand this law in the natural world, and work with it. But few understand it in the mental and moral world (though its operation there is just as simple and undeviating), and they, therefore, do not cooperate with it."

~ James Allen, As A Man Thinketh

Those who are dominated by the sinful nature think about sinful things, but those who are controlled by the Holy Spirit think about those things that please the Spirit. So letting your sinful nature control your mind leads to death. But letting the Spirit control your mind leads to life and peace.

~ Romans 8:5-6
