

How Should I Respond?

Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.

~ Matthew 3:2

The disciples went out telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God.

~ Mark 6:12

Let us strip off every weight slows us down,
especially the sin that so easily trips us up.

~ Hebrews 12:1

I tell you the truth, unless you turn from your sins and become like little children, you will never get into the Kingdom of Heaven.

~ Matthew 18:3

Four Suggestions

- I. EVALUATE the change you're wanting to see.
 - II. EXAMINE the possibility of compromise.
- The bigger the change, the harder it will be to stick with.
 - Success breeds success.

Four Suggestions

- I. EVALUATE the change you're wanting to see.
 - II. EXAMINE the possibility of compromise.
 - III. EXPECT a reasonable effort.
- Change involves the will, the mind and the emotions.
 - We are all human and prone to weakness.

For he knows how weak we are;
he remembers we are only dust.

~ Psalm 103:14

- IV. ENLIST God's help.

Gently instruct those who oppose the truth. Perhaps God will change those people's hearts, and they will learn the truth. Then they will come to their senses and escape from the devil's trap. For they have been held captive by him to do whatever he wants.

~ 2 Timothy 2:25-26

~ 2 Timothy 2:25-26

“Prayer has obtained things that seemed impossible and out of our reach. It has won victories over fire, air, earth, and water. Prayer parted the Red Sea. It brought water from a rock and bread from heaven. Prayer made the sun stand still. Prayer brought fire from the sky on Elijah’s sacrifice. Prayer overthrew the army of Sennacherib. Prayer has healed the sick. Prayer has raised the dead. Prayer has moved countless souls toward salvation.”
